Ideas for Titles of New Chapters

“The Day Bow Wow Got Lost”
This chapter is about how Bow Wow was going to the bathroom and he wandered off because he smelled a taco. He got lost and Professor and his wife went to go around the city to find him.

“Professor on Vacation”
This chapter is about professor going to Canada with his wife and pets and finding out they are in the wrong place with no map! They try to figure out how to get there before vacation is over and they have to leave.

“The Day I Forgot My Name”
You know the feeling were you feel like something is missing and you don’t feel right? The feeling when you have butterflies in your stomach? That is the how I feel all the time. My life is one big ISPY waiting for my little eye to find everything I have lost. This brings me to one of mine adventures, the day I forgot my name.

“The Day I Forgot My Wife’s Birthday”
I never thought in a millions years that I would ever do this. I’m going to have to sleep on the couch for the rest of my life. I FORGOT MY WIFE’S BIRTHDAY. I have been so busy with my schoolwork that I forgot. She is never going to forgive me. I have forgotten a lot in my life, but nothing that is this bad. I have to find a way to make it up to here. A day in the spa, a romantic dinner, or a walk on the beach. No matter what I do it just has to be good.

“Lost Friend”
My best friend loves walks, but one walk makes him change his mind. Even though his leash is strong he still manages to break it. I will never forget the day I lost my best friend.

“Stuck”
Elevators don’t like me. I’m always going to the wrong floor. When I finally go to the right floor something happened that I wasn’t expecting. I will always be the one who takes the stairs from now on.

“Forgot My Test in a Taxi”
Professor Shlemiel was on the way to school. He got out of the taxi and he forgot his briefcase in the taxi. When he got to school he wondered where his tests were. So he left the school to go look for them.

“When My Dog Ran Away”
Professor Shlemiel was taking Bow Wow for a walk. When Bow Wow saw another dog and ran after him. Professor Shlemiel couldn’t find Bow Wow anywhere. So he sent all of his friends to go look for Bow Wow.

“The Day that I Got Stuck in the Elevator”
It all started like a regular day going to work. I got in and the elevator stopped. I thought it was messing with me but then I realized that we weren’t moving. And I didn’t have a phone with me to call for help.
Ideas for Titles of New Chapters

“The Day I Took Bow Wow to the Zoo”
Bow Wow and I were walking through the zoo. We realized no one was there at the zoo we were stranded in the middle of the zoo alone and all the gates were locked.

“The Day I Lost My Money”
Professor and his wife are out in New York City. Professor Shlemiel and his wife get separated on a busy street. When they finally find each other they decide to get something to eat, but there’s one problem Professor Shlemiel lost his wallet and can’t remember where. He went to look for Mrs. Shlemiel.

“A Day at the Park”
One day Professor Shlemiel and his dog, Bow Wow, are at the park. They want to play Frisbee but Professor forgot it at home so they use a stick. It was a hot day so Professor Shlemiel takes off his coat, which Mrs. Shlemiel bought. Where is Professor’s coat?

“The Day I Lost My Wedding Ring”
This chapter is about Mr. Shlemiel losing his wedding ring that he was supposed to give to his bride on their wedding day, which is now his wife. He had to find it before his bride found out; otherwise he would be in big trouble.

“The Day I Got Lost in the Airport”
This chapter is about me, Professor Shlemiel, getting lost in the airport on my way to a class field trip to Dubuque, Iowa. I happen to lose my students and all of my suitcases. Will I be able to find my students, or will they be lost forever? Read this book to find out.

“The Day I Decided to Go on Vacation”
After Dr. Shlemiel’s last incident of forgetting his own address, he goes back to his normal life of teaching a classroom of students, taking care of Bow-Wow, and coming home every night. He and Mrs. Shlemiel decide they need a break so they pack up and head down south. Now even though Dr. Shlemiel’s life has gone back to normal since getting lost, he is still his forgetful self. Maybe Dr. Shlemiel hasn’t lost his old ways after all on their “so called” relaxing vacation.

“The Day I Got Stuck”
Dr. Shlemiel hates elevators and after taking Bow-Wow to the vet for an appointment he is really going to dislike them even more. This time instead of getting lost Dr. Shlemiel gets stuck with his pet dog.

“Mixed Up”
Professor Shlemiel forgets a lot of things but we never thought he would mix this up with anything.

“A Good Friend Lost”
One of Professor Shlemiel’s good friends gets lost. The Professor goes out to find him at night by himself.
Ideas for Titles of New Chapters

“The Day Bow Wow Got Lost”
You know my story, now you will learn a time when my dog got lost. I was walking around the city with him when he saw a rabbit and chased after it. You will learn how I found him and where I found him.

“We Moved and Guess What Happened”
A sequel to “The Day I Got Lost”, this story is about how we moved to Rhode Island, since it’s a smaller state and I got a job promotion. When we reached the airport I had gotten lost while getting out of the plane. I can guarantee you will laugh when you find out where I ended up!

“When I Lost My Dog”
My dog was my best friend. He went with me everywhere. But, that’s how he got lost. We were walking through the streets of New York City, when I noticed my Bow Wow had disappeared. I don’t know if he is lost or stolen. How will I ever find him?

“My Vacation to the Bahamas”
It was all a great vacation, until I got lost. I was excited to explore the water. So, I rented a boat. I wasn’t great at directions while on a boat. I don’t know how I ever counted on myself to be safe. Eventually I got lost, at sea.

“Held Captive”
Professor Shlemiel went to the zoo to have fun and see the magnificent animals. When the park was about to close professor Shlemiel forgets where he places his hat and jacket. He finds them and is walking out to leave, but the gates are locked and the zoo is deserted.

“Man’s Best Friend”
Bow-wow and I had a connection the first time we met. We are companions and are always with each other. Our friendship is unbreakable and will last forever. We’ve dodged obstacles together, and are still friends. Many adventures are awaiting us.

“It Happens Over and Over Again”
Professor Shlemiel once again forgets something. This time he can’t remember his own name. People are addressing him as Professor Shlemiel and he gives no response. He never even taught his classes he just sat there all day and did absolutely nothing. Will Professor Shlemiel recover from this tragic incident?

“The Day I Lost My Ring”
Professor Shlemiel once again forgets something very important - his wedding ring. He looked all over the city and couldn’t find it. Professor thinks maybe Bow Wow can help retrieve something that Professor Shlemiel can’t possibly lose. Will Bow Wow be the savior and recover Shlemiel’s wedding ring?

“A Week in the Woods”
Join Professor Shlemiel and Bow Wow on their walk that turned into a week in the woods all alone! Meet the creatures they ran into, and the challenges they had to face!
Ideas for Titles of New Chapters

“Where are They?”
On his way to work one day, Professor Shlemiel loses all of his students’ essay papers. He has no idea where he put them, he has one hour to find his papers. Does he find them? You have to read the book to find out.

“A Day in the Airport”
Mr. and Mrs. Shlemiel go on a vacation and nothing goes right for Professor Shlemiel. In the airport, he loses his plane tickets, and then he loses his luggage. That’s only part of what happened. Read the book to find out what happens to this absent-minded professor.

“Where’s My Dog?”
Shlemiel takes his dog to the bathing and grooming shop. But he ends up forgetting to pick Bow-Wow up and he runs an hour late but when he gets there he can’t find Bow-Wow anywhere. What will he do to find Bow-Wow? Read to find out.

“One Lens Professor”
One day, while walking along a street in downtown New York, a squirrel fell out of the tree above him and landed on him. Read the rest of the story to see what happens after that!

“The Day Bow Wow Ran Away”
One day, I was walking Bow Wow around the neighborhood. All of a sudden a cat ran in front of us, and Bow Wow took off. Read the rest of the story to see how Professor Shlemiel gets his dog back!

“My Day off Work”
Read about how Professor Shlemiel gets to take a day off of work. At first he was happy to get a day off, but later in the day he decided he never wanted to take another day off again. Read about the crazy things that happen to this crazy professor while he is away from his beloved philosophy job.

“A Memory to Forget”
Read about Professor Shlemiel’s trip to the eye doctor. In this story, you will learn about the interesting experience Professor Shlemiel had there, and the memory he had there that he will never forget.

“Weight Watchers Walk”
Find out what happens to Professor Shlemiel when he starts to forget when he has eaten last. Hear about his forgetful route to the Weight Watchers class, and how he forgetfully loses the weight.

“Floor 4, Wait Where Am I”
Have you ever clicked the wrong elevator button and ended up in a creepy place? Here about Professor Shlemiel’s creepy adventure in a hospital basement after the elevator would not take him anywhere else.
Ideas for Titles of New Chapters

“The Day I Lost My Dog”
Bow Wow is missing!! Professor Shlemiel has looked all over town. He even hung up fliers. Professor Shlemiel is doubtful that he will ever find his dog. Will he ever find him or will Bow Wow be lost and hungry again?

“Where is My Key?”
After a long day of teaching, Mr. Shlemiel comes home but can’t find his key. With Mrs. Shlemiel out of town to visit her sick aunt, Shlemiel is locked out for a whole week! Will he get back in or will the pets go hungry for a week?

“Sick Day”
Professor Shlemiel works at the city’s college. He became very sick on day and forgot to call into school to tell them he would not be there that day to teach his class. Their big test was also on this day. Will they get a substitute in time? Will the class be canceled? What will happen to the students?

“Bow Wow is Lost”
Bow Wow, Professor Shlemiel’s dog and companion, is lost! Is this all Professor Shlemiel’s fault or did he run away? Is he in New York City or a whole new city? Read to find out if Professor Shlemiel is reunited with his dog or will he be lost forever!

“Let’s Go Up… I Mean Down?”
Professor Shlemiel has one great enemy in his life. Not stairs, not escalators, but elevators. Read this exciting chapter and see Professor Shlemiel get caught in the elevator several times. Also watch him try to go to the top floor and end up in the basement.

“My Briefcase!!”
Professor Shlemiel is on his way home from work by riding on the subway, but when he gets off at his stop and goes home he remembers something very important. His briefcase with all of his manuscripts and documents are gone with the train. Will he ever find his briefcase? What will his boss say? Read and find out.

“Hello Japan”
It was a cold night and Professor was walking Bow Wow. He saw a sign that said “River this Way” so he followed the sign. Then he went to the beach and he fell asleep. When he woke up he saw that he was in Japan. This story is about how he finds his way back to his home.

“Oh No”
This is a story about how the professor loses his briefcase when he was writing his memoir and his story of how he gets it back.

“Vacation Madness”
Shlemiel goes on vacation and he forgets all of his luggage at the hotel. How does he get it back? Read to find out if he ever gets all his things back.